Pursuant to 23 DCMR § 1719.1 (April 2004), any Party adversely affected by this Order may file a Motion for Reconsideration within ten (10) days of service of this Order with the Alcoholic Beverage Regulation Administration, 2000 14th Street, N.W., Suite 400S, Washington, D.C. 20009.

Also, pursuant to section 11 of the District of Columbia Administrative Procedure Act, Pub. L. 90-614, 82 Stat. 1209, D.C. Official Code 2-510 (2001), and Rule 15 of the District of Columbia Court of Appeals, any party adversely affected has the right to appeal this Order by filing a petition for review, within thirty (30) days of the date of service of this Order, with the District of Columbia Court of Appeals, 500 Indiana Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20001. However, the timely filing of a Motion for Reconsideration pursuant to D.C. Official Code § 25-433, stays the time for filing a petition for review in the District of Columbia Court of Appeals until the Board rules on the motion. See D.C. App. Rule 15(b).

RE: Lounge 201 LLC, t/a The 201 Bar

Ms. Karen Wirt,

I am writing to confirm that The 201 Bar generally closes by midnight most nights and to pledge that on those nights where we have a large party or a large crowd that departs after midnight we will make sure those guests are aware that they are in a residential neighborhood and should be respectful and quiet when leaving the establishment and walking to their vehicles.

We will instruct all staff including doormen to adhere to this policy and we will maintain a sign asking our guests to be respectful to our neighbors in the front vestibule.

Should an incident occur in the future please alert me so I can address it. I appreciate the cooperation of the ANC on this matter.

Sincerely,

Matthew Weiss
Owner, The 201 Bar
